Multiple weapons found in gunman’s hotel room

By The New York Times Staff

Las Vegas, Oct 4 (Las Vegas Review-Journal) — Las Vegas police say they have located a .30-caliber rapid-fire Barrett rifle on an outdoor cover near a sixth-floor window of the room where a gunman was staying, leaving at least 50 people dead, injuring 527 others, and sending thousands of terrified survivors fleeing for cover, in one of the deadliest mass shootings in American history.

Prosecutors with the Clark County District Attorney’s office confirmed that the Barrett rifle was one of a number of firearms found in the room where 64-year-old Stephen Paddock opened fire on a crowd of 22,000 at a music festival Sunday night. They said it was one of the weapons used by Paddock in the shooting.

Paddock, who killed himself in the hotel room after the shooting, had rented the room several months earlier and had been stockpiling weapons and ammunition, law enforcement officials said.

“Right now, I can’t come up with one valid reason not to cooperate with the Federal Government and enforce Illegal Criminal Aliens laws. Illegal Criminal Aliens are, by their very nature, supposed to live amongst law-abiding American people and for their conduct was filed with the Commission on Judicial Discipline.

I have been in Las Vegas for many years and I know how the (See My Point of View, Page 2)

By Rolling Stone

Alexandria, Va., Oct 4 (Rolling Stone) — President Trump called Las Vegas “the act of pure evil” and “a monument to our heartbreak” in a surprise phone call from the White House just after the shooting.

The president, who has said he was not aware of the shooting before it began, was at the Manhattan home of his friend and billionaire casino mogul Sheldon Adelson. Adelson is also chairman of the Republican National Committee.

“Thank you for your support,” the president responded to a message from a White House池, according to the official. “I don’t blame you.”

Kevin Lobato

A jovial Trump, seated at a desk, appears to have Thanksgiving in mind: “He’s not even from my party, but he had a hatchet face and he was raping and pillaging our great American Flag.”

On Tuesday, Trump appeared to be taking a shot at any community that is righteously believe that keeping Illegal Criminal Aliens back into any American community is the only way to do it. They should not be allowed to disrespect our flag. As far as the Great American Flag is concerned, it should be made only by someone who is a law-abiding American, and its adornment should not be taken from any American citizen.”

Sanctuary City advocates are moronic political hacks

By Gordon Martines

The Hill

FROM THE DESK OF GORDON MARTINES

President Donald Trump tells with residents as first lady Melania Trump, center, and U.S. Rep. and Resident Commissioner of Puerto Rico Jennifer Gutiérrez, right, look on at the President visited areas damaged by Hurricane Maria in Guayanilla, Puerto Rico Tuesday.

Sanctuary City advocates are moronic political hacks, as flag-waving patriotism, actions are interpreted as racially inflammatory. Liberal sport journalist spent obsessed over President Trump’s recent veto of the defense bill, which would have funded the National Anthem at events. He was even more popular, some said (probably) saw Racismo America at work, publishing Klaucke’s ‘illegitimate citizens’ (See Trump vs. NFL, Page 6)
NFL owners panic after three huge backlashes

By The barnyard team

(BORN NEWS) — The bil- lionesque. Owners of the teams have been silent for any player’s allegations, especially when it comes to the American flag and dishonor of the nation. Fans, however, haven’t been so passive. There’s been an increas- ingly hostile reaction by Americans to NFL team owners.

The American flag and dishonor to the American will of the American veterans. There’s been an increas- ingly hostile reaction by Americans to NFL team owners.

In the late sixties I was given the opportunity of owning my own snack bar and two Mexican Sheriffs Deputies in those days, which is now called LVMPD ever since the police and the sheriff merged because the Undersheriff wanted to date the man’s wife.

As always, I approved this column.

Thank you for your continued support. We search for the truth, excerpted move.

The NFL pays hundreds of mil- lions to athletes — and depends on advertising revenue from their dollars out of the floundering market.

The best way we can do this is to help with the task of revoking the parole, and do any number of other things to harangue the parole.

Please, (6), don’t give these people who corrupted the country the pleasure of doing the same thing again, don’t give the Goldmans the pleasure of seeing you back behind bars, and most important of them all, don’t deprive your family of the pleasure of seeing you back behind bars.

I am glad that OJ is out and I wish him the best.
Concert attendees administering first aid to a victim of the shooting.

Massacre
(Continued from Page 1)

— The police found the gunman, whose real name was Stephen Paddock, 64, dead in his room at the Mandalay Bay. Police said they were still coming through Mr. Paddock’s background before they pursued other leads on Monday.

The Las Vegas Review-Journal, a local paper, said that Mr. Paddock was one of six soldiers, before becoming a used-car dealer and then a federal prison in Texas in 1968 and 1961, respectively, of whose death he was in fact in prison, according to the police. The paper did not show updated political or ideological beliefs in their interactions.

— Speaking at the White House, President Trump compared the shooting as an “act of pure evil” and said that the country is coming together. “Our unity cannot be broken by evil deeds, not be broken by violence.”

The police found an arsenal in the gunman’s hotel room

— About 23 firearms, including a handgun, were found in Mr. Paddock’s hotel room, according to the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. In addition, 20 rifles equipped with scopes, as well as 19 additional weapons were located in the room.

The police found an arsenal in the gunman’s hotel room

— Mr. Paddock had ties to any international terrorist group, or else by assailants out only by those directed by the Islamic State, the group has made the claim. The F.B.I. said there was not enough evidence to support its claim. The group has claimed violence carried out only by those directed by the Islamic State.

— “It seemed like rapid fire,” she said many of the people around her in the concert crowd thought. “As for what goes on in a person’s mind, I couldn’t tell you.” Mr. Sullivan said. “I knew nothing about him personally.”

— “We believe the individual killed himself prior to our entry.”

— Mr. Sullivan said they did not believe there were active shooters.

— The police found an arsenal in the gunman’s hotel room

— Guests at the Mandalay Bay check-in said the hotel was on partial lockdown Monday. While guests were allowed in the hotel through the parking structure in the back of the complex, the strip was closed.

— The casino floor was largely empty, though a few gamblers played slots. Several guests napped in empty rooms, though a few gamblers played slots. Several guests napped in empty rooms.

— The Islamic State claimed on its Twitter account on Monday that the gunman was “a suicide bomber.”

— “The fact that he had those kind of weapons is just — where the hell did he get automatic weapons?” he asked.

— A bellman at the hotel said the man was still in the vault, which had been shut down.

— Melissa Ayala, 41, came to the country music festival with four friends from Orange, Calif. They were drinking and laughing when they heard what they thought was fireworks. She did not realize it was gunfire until a man near them was gunned down by a bullet and fell to the ground, blood coming from his neck.

— “It seemed like regular fire,” she said. “Blood was pouring everywhere.”

What about the IRS claim?

— The Islamic State claimed on Monday that the gunman was a “Soldier of the Islamic State,” but the group did not provide any evidence for its claim. The group has generally claimed victims were not killed by those directed by the terrorist group, or else by assailants out only by those directed by the Islamic State.

— The group has made at least two false claims, including an attack on a cage in Manila and ambush plot at Charles de Gaulle Airport in Paris.

— The Islamic State spokesman, who called for sympathizers around the world to carry out violence in the group’s name on the soil of countries involved in the fight against ISIS.

— In a second bulletin about the Las Vegas shooting, Amad said the attacker had converted to Islam earlier this year.

— The first reports of the shooting came at 10:08 p.m. local time. Critics were overheard on police radio channels reporting that they were pinned down by gunfire. Shortly before midnight, the Las Vegas Police Department reported that “one subject is down,” and sometime after, the police said they did not believe there were any active shooters.

— The Reno 911 Festival Bids itself as “three days of country music on the Vegas Strip.”

— The gunman recently bought several weapons

— Christopher Sullivan, general manager of Guns N’ Us, a gun shop in Mesquite, Nev., said confirmed that Mr. Paddock had bought three guns at his shop — a handgun and two rifles — within the last year. All the purchases were legal and cleared routine federal background and searching his home.

— Police officers advise people to take cover.

— Guests at the Mandalay Bay check-in said the hotel was on partial lockdown Monday. While guests were allowed in the hotel through the parking structure in the back of the complex, the strip was closed.

— The Islamic State claimed on its Twitter account on Monday that the gunman was “a suicide bomber.”

— “The fact that he had those kind of weapons is just — where the hell did he get automatic weapons?” he asked.

— A bellman at the hotel said the man was still in the vault, which had been shut down.

— Melissa Ayala, 41, came to the country music festival with four friends from Orange, Calif. They were drinking and laughing when they heard what they thought was fireworks. She did not realize it was gunfire until a man near them was gunned down by a bullet and fell to the ground, blood coming from his neck.

— “It seemed like regular fire,” she said. “Blood was pouring everywhere.”

What about the IRS claim?

— The Islamic State claimed on Monday that the gunman was a “Soldier of the Islamic State,” but the group did not provide any evidence for its claim. The group has generally claimed victims were not killed by those directed by the terrorist group, or else by assailants out only by those directed by the Islamic State.

— The group has made at least two false claims, including an attack on a cage in Manila and ambush plot at Charles de Gaulle Airport in Paris.

— The Islamic State spokesman, who called for sympathizers around the world to carry out violence in the group’s name on the soil of countries involved in the fight against ISIS.

— The first reports of the shooting came at 10:08 p.m. local time. Criti...
Trump calls Las Vegas shooting an ‘act of pure evil’

By Jordan Fabian

The Hill

President Trump Monday condemned the mass shooting in Las Vegas as an “act of pure evil” and announced he would visit the gambling mecca as soon as possible.

“We join together in sadness, shock and sadness,” Trump said on Twitter. “Our hearts are with the victims and families of the White House. ‘It’s an act of pure evil.’

Trump said he would travel to Las Vegas with first responders and victims’ families. The somber president later took time to thank several individuals for their “full day” there and called it a “very, very bad day for everyone.”

The president spoke just hours after the confirmed dead topped 50 and the sixth mass shooting in U.S. history.

Trump thanked first responders and police for reacting so quickly, cărying with many lives. He also offered words of comfort to families of victims, telling, “we are here for you and we are paying for you.”

The president ordered flags to fly at half-staff at all federal buildings, all military installations until the somber Sunday.

Friday. He said the country must remain united in the face of such shocking violence.

“Our unity cannot be shattered by the little voices of division,” Trump said. “They speak by violence and they speak by self-hate. They are the murder of our fellow citizens, it is a great woeful day and I will always love that defines us today and forever,” Trump said.

He offered a similar, measured response to a shooting this summer in the D.C. area.

The alleged gunman, Stephen Paddock, was found dead in a hotel room.

President Trump was in London, traveling to his schedule Monday morning with First Lady Melania Trump.

He offered a similar, measured response to a shooting this summer in the D.C. area. “In the face of unspeakable evil, our whole nation must respond with countless acts of kindness, warmth and compassion,” Scalise said in a statement.

FirstMed offers free medical, financial assistance to victims and families of the Las Vegas massacre

Special to the Las Vegas Tribune

FreeMed Health and Wellness Centers recently launched a community-based health center serving Las Vegas’ underserved populations, ready and willing to assist victims of Sunday night’s tragic shooting.

They have provided free medical, counseling, prescription review and services. Through 2017 VOCA (Victims of Crime Act) funding from the State of Nevada, FirstMed is in a position to assist victims and their families with costs associated with the tragedy. This includes helping fund travel to fly into Las Vegas or covering the cost of helping victims to fly home, temporary housing, extended hotel room stays, food, clothing, personal refills (as appropriate) and support services.

For more information about these services, please call the individuals below or visit one of FirstMed’s two clinics.

FirstMed Clinic Locations:

FreeMed of Las Vegas, 89100 South Loop, Suite 106, Las Vegas, NV 89109

Mona Lisa Paulo: 702-859-2253

* * * * *

From The Desk

(Continued from Page 1)

There are groups with no skills, no education, no morals, no manners, no country — anything to bring us down and make us weak, make us tired, make us stop loving each other, make us stop loving America, make us stop loving our country, to continue to block America’s progress.

It would not be a surprise that with 2.5 million sovereign islands of each country in each State, open borders, illegal immigration, and illegal criminals, our country is falling apart.

We must protect “Sanctuary City” concepts of protecting the identities of recently released Illegal Criminal Convicted Aliens, there will be a movement to sue these concepts and set up funds to sue the entity in question and not have any impact on the individual.

These Illegal Criminal Convicted Aliens deported and out of our country, period.

It was time to do it now, otherwise our country will slowly fall apart, and from which there is no return.

Sanctuary City policies will only make our country stronger and better.

While we are strong, we need to keep the public informed and become strong like other countries.

We need to act like one.

Remember to Keep your Faith, Keep your Gun, and they can keep their FirstMed Clinic Locations:

FreeMed of Las Vegas, 89100 South Loop, Suite 106, Las Vegas, NV 89109

Mona Lisa Paulo: 702-859-2253

To access these services, please call the individuals below or visit one of FirstMed’s two clinics.

FirstMed Clinic Locations:

FreeMed of Las Vegas, 89100 South Loop, Suite 106, Las Vegas, NV 89109

Mona Lisa Paulo: 702-859-2253

* * * * *

FirstMed offers free medical, financial assistance to victims and families of the Las Vegas massacre

FirstMed offers free medical, financial assistance to victims and families of the Las Vegas massacre

Please join us in our national wave to bring God back into our county through donations and prayer! Your prayers and donations are appreciated!!!

CONTACT EMAIL: aj@thechristiancrusade.com

Please join us in our national wave to bring God back into our county through donations and prayer! Your prayers and donations are appreciated!!!

www.thechristiancrusade.com

Also, please join our Facebook group if you are on Facebook:

https://facebook.com/groups/163472793348347/

YOUR PRAYERS AND DONATIONS ARE APPRECIATED!!!

In God We Trust.

Golden Knight is a former LAS VEGAS TRIBUNE Correspondent and has covered multiple high profile cases over his 19 year career in law enforcement. He has been a candidate for sheriff in 2002, 2006, 2010 and 2014, with the successful outcome in his campaign in 2014. He also offers a pro bono counseling and accountability back to the department, and filed a federal lawsuit against UNLV in 2011. Martinez has appeared on Fox News, Foxfriends, Extra, and many more shows and interviews on the topic of “Open-Mic” on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 11:00 AM. He has been a contributor and offers ideas to the Las Vegas Tribune to keep the public informed and help improve policing in Las Vegas.

Golden Knight can be contacted via email at copen77@mylive.com.
Zinke’s national monument modifications too modest

By Thomas Mitchell

Federal Bureau of Investigation

Ryan Zinke visited National Monument Gold Butte in July, but the monument designation has already been lawsuits as vast landscapes. It appears that certain monuments were designated to prevent economic activity such as grazing, mining, and timber production rather than to protect specific objects. He also noted that the public comment process has been well-maintained, well-funded, well-organized.

The live charges of misconduct against Kephart were: 1) Failed to “maintain the dignity of office and avoid impropriety;” 2) Failing to comply with the laws; 3) Failing to act in all matters in a manner that promotes confidence in the independence, integrity, and impartiality of the judiciary and avoiding impropriety and the appearance of impropriety: 4) Failed “in performing judicial and administrative duties competently and diligently;” and, 5) Making “public statement or院院长 in the NCJD’s website. It can be read at: www.tinyurl.com/y9rpnfqz. The NCJD’s Formal Statement contains the facts about Zinke’s modest memo, “This suggested a calf or branded a steer, about in the grease orchards, cas-

Zinke recommended unspecified changes to the Gold Butte Monu-

The Justice Institute is based in Washing-

DO YOU NEED AN EDITOR?

Have you been embarrassed lately when someone pointed out to you that you misspelled a word in your report or maybe had a whole sentence all messed up? Have you personally felt that you would be much better job on that manuscript but just didn’t have the time? Why pull all doing what you know you should have done before. If you are not sure where you will fit, will she fit what needs being added by a little of this or that, and taking what’s up? Giving yourself the luxury of looking your best in print!

EDITOR-AT-YOUR-SERVICE.COM - 1-717-913-0492
Trump: Puerto Rico has ‘thrown our budget a little out of whack’

By Jonathan Karl

President Trump on Tuesday noted the enormous cost associated with the hurricane and asked Puerto Rico to accept assistance in San Juan on Tuesday that the efforts of the people of Puerto Rico had ‘thrown our budget a little out of whack.’

The president appeared in good spirits as he accepted applause and other cheers from a group of some 50,000 people who are not able to get their work done. He welcomed the Mayor of San Juan, Mrs. Carmen Yulin Cruz, who was also in the room, saying at a meeting with officials in San Juan that the efforts of the people of Puerto Rico had ‘thrown our budget a little out of whack.’

The president appeared in good spirits as he accepted applause and other cheers from a group of some 50,000 people who are not able to get their work done. He welcomed the Mayor of San Juan, Mrs. Carmen Yulin Cruz, who was also in the room, saying at a meeting with officials in San Juan that the efforts of the people of Puerto Rico had ‘thrown our budget a little out of whack.’

The president appeared in good spirits as he accepted applause and other cheers from a group of some 50,000 people who are not able to get their work done. He welcomed the Mayor of San Juan, Mrs. Carmen Yulin Cruz, who was also in the room, saying at a meeting with officials in San Juan that the efforts of the people of Puerto Rico had ‘thrown our budget a little out of whack.’
Mass shooting rekindles gun debate

By Katie Bo Williams and Jordan Fabian

The fact that he had those kind of weapons is just — where the hell did he get automatic weapons? an emotional Eric Paddock asked.

On Wednesday morning, President Trump said he wondered if the shooting could have been prevented.

The Natural Rights Association (NRA), however, vigorously defended their arms rights.

The suspected gunman has been identified as Nevada resident Stephen Paddock, according to Las Vegas police. The 64-year-old took his own life, according to police, after an enforcement closed in on his hotel room.

Many that little has changed on Capitol Hill once a gunman moved dozens of high-powered weapons to the Pulse nightclub in Florida.

Congress rejected a slate of bipartisan gun control measures in response to the Orlando massacre, highlighting advocates' failure to push through even modest reforms in the wake of the Pulse nightclub and Sandy Hook shootings.

November 24, 2017 / 12:12 PM ET

The national debate over gun laws in the immediate aftermath of the shooting, when some key facts remain unclear.

Tucson, and barely survived. A somber Trump called the massacre “an act of pure evil” in an address to the nation.

Obama, who used mass shootings as a backdrop for his presidency, staged a dramatic 26-hour sit-in on the House floor to protest congressional inaction — to little effect. Senator Sanders called a 15-hour filibuster that carried nearly unanimous votes on four relatively popular measures, all of which failed.

Among those failed bills were a pair of measures aimed at restricting sales to people on the federal terrorist watch list.

Gun-control advocates were optimistic some Republicans might buck it because the Orlando gunman, Omar Mateen, had expressed allegiance to the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria (ISIS).

The Reed amendment (NRA), however, vigorously opposed the measure, saying it could encourage innocent people of their Second Amendment rights.

By Joe Concha

The post quickly went viral, with millions sharing the clip on Twitter.

The Reed amendment (NRA), however, vigorously opposed the measure, saying it could encourage innocent people of their Second Amendment rights.

The Reed amendment (NRA), however, vigorously opposed the measure, saying it could encourage innocent people of their Second Amendment rights.

The suspect shooter, 64-year-old Las Vegas resident Stephen Paddock, opened fire on an outdoor concert crowd, killing at least 59 and wounding or instancia more than 500 others.

The suspect shooter, 64-year-old Las Vegas resident Stephen Paddock, opened fire on an outdoor concert crowd, killing at least 59 and wounding or instancia more than 500 others.

The suspect shooter, 64-year-old Las Vegas resident Stephen Paddock, opened fire on an outdoor concert crowd, killing at least 59 and wounding or instancia more than 500 others.

The suspect shooter, 64-year-old Las Vegas resident Stephen Paddock, opened fire on an outdoor concert crowd, killing at least 59 and wounding or instancia more than 500 others.
Terror experts puzzled by ISIS claim in Las Vegas attack

By Katie Bo Williams

Less than 12 hours after a man identified by police as Stephen Paddock opened fire on an outdoor country music concert, killing at least 58 and perpetrating the deadliest mass shooting in modern U.S. history, the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria (ISIS) issued a statement that prompted terror experts. The group took credit for the attack on its semi-official news agency, Amaq.

So far, there is no evidence that ISIS was involved beyond the group’s own assurance that Paddock was “a soldier of the Caliphate.” The lump later double down on its claim, saying Paddock converted to Islam months ago.

The FBI has said it does not believe the attack was connected to an international terrorist group. And Paddock, at 64, was not in the profile of a young ISIS recruit.

“This is, to say the least, very strange,” tweeted Amarnath Amirtharaj, a research fellow at George Washington University’s extremism program.

Historically, ISIS has not been known to attack the in the attacks it claims have been carried out by its perpetrators. Experts believe the group likely knew that it was not connected to the perpetrator and was trying to link its cause with the incident.

The group does often claim responsibility for attacks that may have been merely inspired by the group’s ideology — no direct structure or funding by ISIS leadership. In another case, the group would “claim a soldier of the Caliphate.”

The two attackers who killed 16 in the shooting in San Bernardino, Calif., in 2015 were claimed by ISIS, even though they appeared to have had no direct contact with the group.

It is required by the U.S. Army guards at the Tomb that the audience stand and maintain a respectful silence during ceremonies. Why this man kneeled remains a mystery.

“Wiederhoeft reportedly told Snopes. “I felt at the time (and the place) it was not appropriate as I was trying to be respectful to my fallen brothers and sisters and maintain silence... He was video taping so maybe he was trying to get a better shot, but with all that is going on currently I just can’t imagine that’s what it was,” Wiederhoeft reportedly told Snopes.

Wiederhoeft said the man kneeled only during Taps, and stood immediately afterward.

Taps is a bugle call played by the U.S. military at dusk to retire the U.S. flag or during military funerals, and is sounded at every military wreath laying.

Although still unverified, the picture seems to show a slap in the face of America’s honor. In it, a man is kneeling — seemingly in protest — while the national anthem is played.

“IT IS A DISGRACEFUL AND INAPPROPRIATE WAY TO PROTEST — BUT...”

But until recently, claims of responsibility put out through official channels were seen as reliable. Establishing a reputation for making easily disprovable claims could undermine its own credibility with its supporters, so ISIS has carefully safeguarded its authority.

That might be changing. The group has now made at least two fake claims in the past few months.

In June, ISIS took credit for a deadly attack on a casino in Manila, the capital of the Philippines, claiming that the shooter converted to Islam months before. But the attack later appeared to be a hochbeben robbery by a gambling addict. Police have consistently maintained there was no tie to terror.

“Less than 24 hours after the Las Vegas attack, the group claimed it had placed bombs at Charles de Gaulle Airport, sparking an evacuation. There were no bombs and the evacuation was unrelated to terrorism. The sudden spike in spurious claims has led some terror experts to speculate that it has gotten sloppy piecing together its stories. The group’s focus has turned to launching attacks outside of Iraq and Syria.

Clear trackers of the group are dubious of the impact that the string of apparently false claims will have on ISIS’s sway with its followers. “If ISIS verified as telling the truth, it will only lose credit by those who already distrust it. To brainwashed supporters, it won’t even crack the bubble.”

Be heard anywhere in the world (only $50 per hour)

Radio Tribune Special

12 hours only $400 20 hours only $600

(Payment due upon contract signing)

• Talk Shows • Infomercials • Community Involvement • Business Promotions • Political Agendas • Marketing Promotions •

www.RadioTribune.com

For additional information Call (702) 272-4634 Email: Advertisement@LasVegasTribune.com

Tune in to Radio Tribune

Tune in and listen to those who will tell you the truth, and nothing but the truth. You’ll discover different personalitites and hear different opinions, but when it comes to the facts, you’ll always get the truth from us!

www.RadioTribune.com Call-In Line (702) 493-5222
Every Tuesday and Thursday from 1:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m., Gordon Martines hosts “Open Mic,” a popular RadioTribune show. The Anti-Corruption Coalition of Nevada is the basis for and theme of “Open Mic.”

Gordon Martines was a career police officer with 39 years of on-the-job Law Enforcement. Past cases involving Kevin Daley, Troyvon Cole and a variety of other covered-up criminal cases, and a billion dollars worth of missing taxpayer money, are discussed in depth and at length on the show.

Martines spent four years as police officer with the Hermosa Beach Police Department before moving on and resuming his police career in Las Vegas as a Detective in the Robbery/Homicide Bureau, retiring from the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department after 36 years of police service.

The amount of corruption and cover-ups by executive Police Administration officers witnessed by Martines aside the department led to his decision to contest the good ol’ boy’s club and run for Clark County Sheriff, three times against what he knew were almost innumerable odds.

“Open Mic,” carries the voice the LVMPD does not want you to hear, yet it is always there, every Tuesday and Thursday at 1:00 a.m. on www.RadioTribune.com. Tune in!

“Face the Tribune”

Face the Tribune is heard every Monday through Friday at 12 noon, hosted by Rolando Larraz.

For the last five years “Face The Tribune” has been the premier show for interviews with politicians, civil service workers, government officials and activists, and a voice for those everyday citizens who needed to air their legal grievances. The Las Vegas Tribune newspaper has been a part of the Las Vegas community for over 18 years and is the only independent newspaper in Clark County.

“Face the Tribune” was established as a voice for the people of Las Vegas and is the only news platform where judges, city councilmen, local businessmen and women, as well as Mr. or Ms. Local Citizen, can voice their opinions and share the issues that pertain to the show.

The show’s host, Rolando Larraz, has been a journalist in Clark County for over 50 years. He has been a fixture in the community and a highly respected publisher who has covered local news and events in Las Vegas since the mid-’60s. For stories and information not available anywhere else in Las Vegas, tune into “Face the Tribune” Monday through Friday at 12 noon.

Chris Garcia, The Conservative American

“Chris Garcia, The Conservative American,” is a daily radio show streamed on RadioTribune.com Monday through Friday from 1:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. You can also Google the show and watch on YouTube.

The show is hosted by Chris Garcia and has daily guests on the show touching on a variety of topics. Those topics include politics, religion, veterans affairs and many other social issues of the day. The show welcomes people of all different backgrounds and encourages vigorous debate.

We have an open microphone policy that encourages people to call into the show live 702-983-0711 from 1:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. PST and join the live debate. You can also call 702-731-9655 and talk to Chris or one of our producers and tell us what you think of the show or set up a date to be live in studio or on the show.

We welcome businessmen of Las Vegas and all over Nevada to advertise on our show. We have the most competitive rates of any radio station. If you want to hear a non-politically correct show, “Chris Garcia, The Conservative American” is the show for you. We look forward to you watching and listening to the show and will appreciate all feedback.

COBRA USA with Blu Laker

A daily Radio show Mon- day through Friday 2:00 p.m. with live guests on a variety of subjects.

Due to the importance of health care, its out-of-control costs with no restraints, millions of Americans are unable to obtain it. Why? Our elected officials have it, they don’t need to worry. But what about the people they represent? Find out why on Cobra USA.

C.O.B.R.A. By the way is the 1983 Insurance Law created by Ronald Reagan in 1983 for continuing health care coverage of health insurance. We talk about insurance, savings and options available through King Cobra, the intended amended version of the original Cobra program. We invite you to press Congress for parity in health care live here at Radio Tribune. Call or email us at Cobra bila@blulaker.com or call (949)-467-0643.

Cobra USA is hosted by Blu Laker, an investigative reporter who has seen medical programs that work around the world, with a cure to the healthcare problem here. Join him in these discussions to clear the air so vital to survival itself and what you can do to help the world. The world has become so large, it’s getting claustrophobic with traffic, travel, taxes, soaring costs for food, water, clothing and shelter, and what are we to do? Join us with your wisdom and knowledge to make America great again; together we can make a difference. Let me pick your brain for the advancement of humanity. We are controversial, conservative and considerate of other people, even when they may have different opinions.

‘Face the Tribune’ is hosted by Rolando Larraz Monday thru Friday at 12 noon on www.RadioTribune.com.
It is what it is… but government officials and law enforcement entities shooting in modern U.S. history. a high scale that it already has been labeled the deadliest as has happened in many cities in the U.S., but on such they need to stop all that nonsense and start working for real, earning the money of the people of this great nation and paying them to serve the people; stop all those campaign speeches, grow up and act like the human beings that they claim to be. Officials in Nevada are professional politicians; they feel as safe as we can be. able to keep them — citizens or visitors, we all need to safe our G-Men and local law enforcement personnel are terrorism nevertheless. whatever type of terrorism any one likes to call it, but happened in Las Vegas last Sunday is a terrorist act — Sunday school. something other than cigarettes because they are supposed — but are they too busy chasing working girls (Las Ve- the best police, we have professional security personnel people as he can, right outside and below his windows, ready to set up a harem for people in the hotel, bypass- terrorist walks in with 25 rifles into his two hotel rooms security guards for one homeless man) while a nut case — go to a room to earn an honest living? yes, he killed so many people as he can, right outside and below his windows, while they didn’t have a clue as they revel in just having a good time.

No oh! That will never happen in Las Vegas! We have the best police, we have professional security personnel — but are they too busy chasing working girls (Las Ve- name for prostitutes) or arresting people for smoking — or intentions, or even his desires. This shooter has apparently lived such a low-key life which is not let it kill our spirit and the peaceful engagement these regime in North Korea, Iran and Venezuela, and it did notRussia in 2017. — we must protect our nations, their interests, and their futures.” Trump declared. “We must reject threats to sovereignty, from the Ukraine to the South China Sea. We must uphold respect for law, respect for borders, and respect for culture, and the peaceful engagement these people who threaten us with chaos, turmoil, and fear.” and he put out that North Korea has shown con- tempt for other nations and its own people by starting, targeting, terrorism is terrorism, whatever they want to call it international, national or domestic, Chilean Finance Minister Ma- did not turn out to be an act of terrorism, but rather that could never be charged as terrorism, international — “domestic terrorists”?

The massacre here in Las Vegas Sunday night during a country music festival was a diabolical act. Some terrorism experts think Paddock doesn’t fit the tech- nical criteria, and especially the FBI, want us to believe that there was any act of terrorism involved in the mas- sacre and want to use us like untrained animals, feed- ing us just anything for fear tourism will stop — during a country music festival was a diabolical act. Yes, he pulled no punches when he talked about the- Our Point of View

It is what it is…

Trump tells it like it is at the U.N.

By Thomas Mitchell

The New York Times editorial page says, “This is what it was, and it had a dark tenor and focus. It con- tinued the speech unflinchingly to one by one. A man named Omar in 2009 when many of the states contend — without a shadow of recognition that Obama had failed to resolve any of these problems. The Las Angeles Times editorial page called the gun violence ‘undermined by bombshell, heartbreaking, illogic and was needless effrontery.’ It is the time to be realistic and accept the fact that what happened in Las Vegas last Sunday night — whatever type of terrorism any one likes it could be, but terrorism nevertheless. It is unfair that law enforcement, elected and govern- ment officials, by trying to protect our main industry, gam- ing, tourism and conventioneers, let by community by pontificating that everything is going to be fine, it isn’t.

The people that live here and even those who visit our city have the right to know how safe they are and how safe we are. The law enforcement officials are here to keep us safe. I urge them to acknowledge their failure. The people that are here, and those who visit our city. The people that are here, and those who visit our city. The people that are here, and those who visit our city.

Terrorism is terrorism regardless of the label

By Peter Vinsvences

The massacre here in Las Vegas Sunday night during a country music festival was a diabolical act. Something terrorism experts think Paddock doesn’t fit the tech- nical criteria, and especially the FBI, want us to believe that there was any act of terrorism involved in the mas- sacre and want to use us like untrained animals, feed- ing us just anything for fear tourism will stop — during a country music festival was a diabolical act. Yes, he pulled no punches when he talked about the- Our Point of View

It is what it is…

Trump tells it like it is at the U.N.

By Thomas Mitchell

The New York Times editorial page says, “This is what it was, and it had a dark tenor and focus. It con- tinued the speech unflinchingly to one by one. A man named Omar in 2009 when many of the states contend — without a shadow of recognition that Obama had failed to resolve any of these problems. The Las Angeles Times editorial page called the gun violence ‘undermined by bombshell, heartbreaking, illogic and was needless effrontery.’ It is the time to be realistic and accept the fact that what happened in Las Vegas last Sunday night — whatever type of terrorism any one likes it could be, but terrorism nevertheless. It is unfair that law enforcement, elected and govern- ment officials, by trying to protect our main industry, gam- ing, tourism and conventioneers, let by community by pontificating that everything is going to be fine, it isn’t.

Terrorism is terrorism regardless of the label

By Peter Vinsvences

The massacre here in Las Vegas Sunday night during a country music festival was a diabolical act. Something terrorism experts think Paddock doesn’t fit the tech- nical criteria, and especially the FBI, want us to believe that there was any act of terrorism involved in the mas- sacre and want to use us like untrained animals, feed- ing us just anything for fear tourism will stop — during a country music festival was a diabolical act. Yes, he pulled no punches when he talked about the- Our Point of View

It is what it is…

Trump tells it like it is at the U.N.

By Thomas Mitchell

The New York Times editorial page says, “This is what it was, and it had a dark tenor and focus. It con- tinued the speech unflinchingly to one by one. A man named Omar in 2009 when many of the states contend — without a shadow of recognition that Obama had failed to resolve any of these problems. The Las Angeles Times editorial page called the gun violence ‘undermined by bombshell, heartbreaking, illogic and was needless effrontery.’ It is the time to be realistic and accept the fact that what happened in Las Vegas last Sunday night — whatever type of terrorism any one likes it could be, but terrorism nevertheless. It is unfair that law enforcement, elected and govern- ment officials, by trying to protect our main industry, gam- ing, tourism and conventioneers, let by community by pontificating that everything is going to be fine, it isn’t.

Terrorism is terrorism regardless of the label

By Peter Vinsvences

The massacre here in Las Vegas Sunday night during a country music festival was a diabolical act. Something terrorism experts think Paddock doesn’t fit the tech- nical criteria, and especially the FBI, want us to believe that there was any act of terrorism involved in the mas- sacre and want to use us like untrained animals, feed- ing us just anything for fear tourism will stop — during a country music festival was a diabolical act. Yes, he pulled no punches when he talked about the- Our Point of View

It is what it is…

Trump tells it like it is at the U.N.

By Thomas Mitchell

The New York Times editorial page says, “This is what it was, and it had a dark tenor and focus. It con- tinued the speech unflinchingly to one by one. A man named Omar in 2009 when many of the states contend — without a shadow of recognition that Obama had failed to resolve any of these problems. The Las Angeles Times editorial page called the gun violence ‘undermined by bombshell, heartbreaking, illogic and was needless effrontery.’ It is the time to be realistic and accept the fact that what happened in Las Vegas last Sunday night — whatever type of terrorism any one likes it could be, but terrorism nevertheless. It is unfair that law enforcement, elected and govern- ment officials, by trying to protect our main industry, gam- ing, tourism and conventioneers, let by community by pontificating that everything is going to be fine, it isn’t.

Terrorism is terrorism regardless of the label

By Peter Vinsvences

The massacre here in Las Vegas Sunday night during a country music festival was a diabolical act. Something terrorism experts think Paddock doesn’t fit the tech- nical criteria, and especially the FBI, want us to believe that there was any act of terrorism involved in the mas- sacre and want to use us like untrained animals, feed- ing us just anything for fear tourism will stop — during a country music festival was a diabolical act. Yes, he pulled no punches when he talked about the- Our Point of View

It is what it is…

Trump tells it like it is at the U.N.

By Thomas Mitchell

The New York Times editorial page says, “This is what it was, and it had a dark tenor and focus. It con- tinued the speech unflinchingly to one by one. A man named Omar in 2009 when many of the states contend — without a shadow of recognition that Obama had failed to resolve any of these problems. The Las Angeles Times editorial page called the gun violence ‘undermined by bombshell, heartbreaking, illogic and was needless effrontery.’ It is the time to be realistic and accept the fact that what happened in Las Vegas last Sunday night — whatever type of terrorism any one likes it could be, but terrorism nevertheless. It is unfair that law enforcement, elected and govern-
Dangers of leftist courts defying Trump travel ban

Larry Klaiman warns of ‘uncheked power never intended by the Constitution’

By Larry Klaiman

The U.S. Supreme Court Mon- day heard arguments in a case that addresses whether a federal district court has the discretion to enjoin the Department of Homeland Security from carrying out a presidential travel ban, which some courts have held is unconstitutional. The Trump administration is seeking to reverse those rulings with the argument that the Constitution empowers the courts to block federal agencies from implementing actions they view as unconstitutional.

The new, prominent-enough

to be known by its own

class of laws. And it

does it in the right way.

The new, prominent-enough to be known by its ownclass of laws. And it does it in the right way.

By Mace Yampolsky

The U.S. Supreme Court Monday heard arguments in a case that addresses whether a federal district court has the discretion to enjoin the Department of Homeland Security from carrying out a presidential travel ban, which some courts have held is unconstitutional. The Trump administration is seeking to reverse those rulings with the argument that the Constitution empowers the courts to block federal agencies from implementing actions they view as unconstitutional.

The new, prominent-enough
to be known by its own

class of laws. And it

does it in the right way.

By Mace Yampolsky

The U.S. Supreme Court Monday heard arguments in a case that addresses whether a federal district court has the discretion to enjoin the Department of Homeland Security from carrying out a presidential travel ban, which some courts have held is unconstitutional. The Trump administration is seeking to reverse those rulings with the argument that the Constitution empowers the courts to block federal agencies from implementing actions they view as unconstitutional.

The new, prominent-enough
to be known by its own

class of laws. And it

does it in the right way.

By Mace Yampolsky

The U.S. Supreme Court Monday heard arguments in a case that addresses whether a federal district court has the discretion to enjoin the Department of Homeland Security from carrying out a presidential travel ban, which some courts have held is unconstitutional. The Trump administration is seeking to reverse those rulings with the argument that the Constitution empowers the courts to block federal agencies from implementing actions they view as unconstitutional.

The new, prominent-enough
to be known by its own

class of laws. And it

does it in the right way.

Massacre in Las Vegas — Why did this happen?

By Mace Yampolsky

More than 50 people were murdered, and at least 500 wounded, when a gunman in a Las Vegas hotel room fired into the crowd at a country music festival late last Sun- day. The shooter was a man with a long history of weapon offenses and sadistic violence. The shooter, who is now dead, is alleged to have had connections to other mass shootings and had posted disturbing videos of himself online. This was one of, if not the worst mass shooting in modern U.S. history. The tragedy comes on the heels of the mass shooting in Las Vegas with the afternoon of this horror for a country already reeling from the weight of the shooter, who is now dead, except his identity. He was Stephen Paddock, the 64-year-old of- fice worker who lived in a widow- that. That is understandable and adequate in custody, and a story in the paper, on news websites and talk shows, there was an instantaneous flood of reports that the shooter had a past of in- control and white males and terrorism and the presumed lightning round of the shooter.

The las Vegas Can We Do?

There is an air of eternity for a while, a sense that maybe we should have done more for good people that carry au-

while mass murder is a time for tears and silence and prayer — not for

This was one of, if not the worst mass shooting in modern U.S. history. The tragedy comes on the heels of the mass shooting in Las Vegas with the afternoon of this horror for a country already reeling from the weight of the shooter, who is now dead, except his identity. He was Stephen Paddock, the 64-year-old of- fice worker who lived in a widow- that. That is understandable and adequate in custody, and a story in the paper, on news websites and talk shows, there was an instantaneous flood of reports that the shooter had a past of in- control and white males and terrorism and the presumed lightning round of the shooter.

The las Vegas Can We Do?

There is an air of eternity for a while, a sense that maybe we should have done more for good people that carry au-

while mass murder is a time for tears and silence and prayer — not for

This was one of, if not the worst mass shooting in modern U.S. history. The tragedy comes on the heels of the mass shooting in Las Vegas with the afternoon of this horror for a country already reeling from the weight of the shooter, who is now dead, except his identity. He was Stephen Paddock, the 64-year-old of- fice worker who lived in a widow- that. That is understandable and adequate in custody, and a story in the paper, on news websites and talk shows, there was an instantaneous flood of reports that the shooter had a past of in- control and white males and terrorism and the presumed lightning round of the shooter.

The las Vegas Can We Do?

There is an air of eternity for a while, a sense that maybe we should have done more for good people that carry au-

while mass murder is a time for tears and silence and prayer — not for

This was one of, if not the worst mass shooting in modern U.S. history. The tragedy comes on the heels of the mass shooting in Las Vegas with the afternoon of this horror for a country already reeling from the weight of the shooter, who is now dead, except his identity. He was Stephen Paddock, the 64-year-old of- fice worker who lived in a widow- that. That is understandable and adequate in custody, and a story in the paper, on news websites and talk shows, there was an instantaneous flood of reports that the shooter had a past of in- control and white males and terrorism and the presumed lightning round of the shooter.

The las Vegas Can We Do?

There is an air of eternity for a while, a sense that maybe we should have done more for good people that carry au-

while mass murder is a time for tears and silence and prayer — not for

This was one of, if not the worst mass shooting in modern U.S. history. The tragedy comes on the heels of the mass shooting in Las Vegas with the afternoon of this horror for a country already reeling from the weight of the shooter, who is now dead, except his identity. He was Stephen Paddock, the 64-year-old of- fice worker who lived in a widow- that. That is understandable and adequate in custody, and a story in the paper, on news websites and talk shows, there was an instantaneous flood of reports that the shooter had a past of in- control and white males and terrorism and the presumed lightning round of the shooter.

The las Vegas Can We Do?

There is an air of eternity for a while, a sense that maybe we should have done more for good people that carry au-

while mass murder is a time for tears and silence and prayer — not for

This was one of, if not the worst mass shooting in modern U.S. history. The tragedy comes on the heels of the mass shooting in Las Vegas with the afternoon of this horror for a country already reeling from the weight of the shooter, who is now dead, except his identity. He was Stephen Paddock, the 64-year-old of- fice worker who lived in a widow- that. That is understandable and adequate in custody, and a story in the paper, on news websites and talk shows, there was an instantaneous flood of reports that the shooter had a past of in- control and white males and terrorism and the presumed lightning round of the shooter.

The las Vegas Can We Do?

There is an air of eternity for a while, a sense that maybe we should have done more for good people that carry au-

while mass murder is a time for tears and silence and prayer — not for

This was one of, if not the worst mass shooting in modern U.S. history. The tragedy comes on the heels of the mass shooting in Las Vegas with the afternoon of this horror for a country already reeling from the weight of the shooter, who is now dead, except his identity. He was Stephen Paddock, the 64-year-old of- fice worker who lived in a widow- that. That is understandable and adequate in custody, and a story in the paper, on news websites and talk shows, there was an instantaneous flood of reports that the shooter had a past of in- control and white males and terrorism and the presumed lightning round of the shooter.
LaDouce has proposed a new law that excludes up to 169,000 pages. She said, "I have an automobile accident it is over the limit in line 19 (disputable); if the accident is in line 19 it is because it was raining and visibility was reduced."

Under the forthing mechanism, the media will have to act as a "check" on the government and its behavior. The president has eliminated South Florida to certify the dogs’ bilingual comprehension. South Florida cities will require an employee who would administer a test under the new law. The councilor explained that the law is backed by leftist billionaire George Soros, sued President Trump over his Presbyterian church. The president has erased messages sent to official White House accounts, ‘direct messages’ sent to his last name on his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as "defending" Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as "defending" Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.

The left-wingers want America to hate Trump just a little bit less than they hate America. They want him impeached as a criminal. They don’t care what they sacrifice, customer satisfaction and favorable reviews. They don’t care about the president’s secrecy about his grades, even his legal address. Remember Bill Clinton’s former advisor, Mitchell. His first director and vice president was due to be named as “defending” Hillary from attacks backed by left-wing friends were in power. He didn’t even issue a press release.
If Washington fails to fix America's debt crisis, states will take action

By Joel Griffith and Jonathan Williams

The Hill opinion contributors

WASHINGTON — After facing one of the worst fiscal crises in American history, American states and cities are determined to solve the problem of federal debt and funding for key services. In light of the current budget deficit, it is clear that states must take action to fix the problem.

Spineless Republicans on the Hill are weighing down the Trump administration

By Roy Speed

WASHINGTON — The Trump administration is facing a major challenge as Senate Republicans vote to block funding for key programs, such as Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP). This move is taking place despite the fact that the government is running out of money and that the United States is facing a potential shutdown.

Hillary's affair, the latest scandal, exposes a larger problem

WASHINGTON — The latest scandal involving Hillary Clinton has once again exposed the larger problem of the lack of accountability in our political system. The former Secretary of State has been involved in numerous controversies, including the email scandal, the Clinton Foundation investigation, and the uranium deal.

If you want to learn about the latest political news and analysis, The Hill is the place to go. Get the latest updates and in-depth coverage of politics and policy right here. If you're interested in learning more about The Hill, please visit our website.
Resident interested in learning more or getting involved in the project should contact the website or the Coalition at peacecoalition.org and click the “Ceasefire NJ icon” on the right.

The Rev. Robert Moore is Executive Director of the Princeton- Congressional Coalition for Peace, Action, of which Ceasefire NJ is a Project.
“Hard Rock Goes Bonkerz” with comedian Carla Rea

By Sandy Zimmerman
Las Vegas Tribune
Photos by Sandy Zimmerman
filmed during the show

The live all-comedy show “Hard Rock Goes Bonkerz” has arrived at the Hard Rock Café on the strip! Headliner Carla Rea takes you on a hilarious ride with what she calls “Observational Humor.” Carla explains, “Everything I say in my show is true!” Carla must really watch people because her observations are exactly as she sees them and right to the point. She is an observer who can tell the humor in situations. I really enjoyed Carla’s act as she is very personable, even joking about herself at times.

Carla’s act brings funny situations, one after another with maybe a slight pause to give the audience a moment to stop laughing. They say Carla Rea delivers the laughs, she does more than that because Carla demonstrates that people are funny. When Carla performs, the audience is mesmerized.

Along with headlining shows, Carla has become a member of the media appearing on 96.3 KKLZ radio’s Morning Show, NBC affiliate, in Las Vegas. Her first DVD “Finding the Funny”, and will record her second DVD soon. With Carla Rea’s background, you know her act will be exceptional and she was truly worthy of the title headliner. After a long running career of over 25 years of Comedy Club, TV, and radio experience, her theory of comedy must be right. Her success also includes two appearances on Late Night with Conan O’Brien, appearances on Evening at the Improv, Showtime and Comedy Central. She also performed with Ray Romano, Brad Garrett, Ellen DeGeneres, Kathleen Madigan, Paula Poundstone, and many others.

“Hard Rock Goes Bonkerz” October 5-6, Comedian Derrick Stroman. Doors open at 7 pm, show at 8 pm. Tickets- $15 & $60 VIP. Derrick J. Stroman has always had a quick wit and a comedic personality with impeccable comedic timing and delivery making him a comedy club favorite!

The Hard Rock Café offers a great selection of everything from starters, Jumbo Combo, salads, legendary burgers, smokehouse, sandwiches, entrees, desserts and menu for kids. For information, call: 702-733-7625. The Hard Rock Café is located at 3771 South Las Vegas Boulevard.

* * * * *

Award-winning syndicated columnist Sandy Zimmerman is a Show and Dining reviewer as well as travel, health, luxury living, cars, spas and more. Sandy is talk show host of Sandy Zimmerman’s Las Vegas TV. For information, questions, or to recommend subjects, please call (702)731-6491 or email www.sandyz2003@yahoo.com. SUGGESTIONS: Do you have a fave comedian, singer, magician, hypnotist, ventriloquist, speciality act, production show or any other entertainer? Las Vegas offers so much talent you should have someone to mention. Send your fave, the reasons for your choice, your name, email and you may win complimentary tickets to a show or other prizes.

“Hard Rock Goes Bonkerz” headliner Carla Rea shared, “Everything in my act is true!”

Headliner Carla Rea explained, she uses “Exaggerated Observation” to tell her stories.

Headliner Carla Rea opened her show, “It’s comedy, we’re here to have fun!”

“I am always on the lookout for great entertainment in Las Vegas!”
By Mike Kermani

Las Vegas Tribune

Black Tap Craft Burgers & Beer will open its newest location this winter at The Venetian, bringing award-winning burgers and world-class shakes to The Las Vegas Strip. The opening marks Black Tap’s first expansion in the U.S. beyond its four New York locations.

“Black Tap is all about three things — delicious All American burgers, out-of-this-world CrazyShakes, and craft beer,” says Black Tap co-owner Joe Isidori. “We can’t wait to introduce the classic American lunchette to the Strip.”

Since opening in New York’s Soho neighborhood in 2013, Black Tap has received worldwide acclaim for its burgers and signature CrazyShakes. The restaurant is helmed by Michelin starred chef Joe Isidori and legendary restaurateur and nightlife developer Chris Barish. Isidori is a seasoned Las Vegas chef, having earned his crêpe~Michelin-star~while working as Executive Chef of DJT. A Vegas hospitality veteran, Barish is known for some of the most incredible nightclubs and restaurants in the country including Light, Marquee, Gordon Ramsay Pool and Grill and Gordon Ramsay Steak.

“Las Vegas is a second home to me and the opening is something special,” says Barish. “The Venetian is the perfect home for Black Tap and we’re thrilled to be part of this incredible team of The Venetian, The Palazzo and locals alike, and will nicely complement the remarkable collection of restaurants at The Venetian and The Palazzo.”

Black Tap Las Vegas is slated to open winter 2017. For more information on Black Tap, visit www.blacktapync.com or follow Black Tap on Facebook and Instagram at @blacktapync.

Byline: George Markantonis

On Monday, June 19, 2017, with their incredible team of The Venetian, The Palazzo and locals alike, and will nicely complement the remarkable collection of restaurants at The Venetian and The Palazzo.

Black Tap Las Vegas is slated to open winter 2017. For more information on Black Tap, visit www.blacktapync.com or follow Black Tap on Facebook and Instagram at @blacktapync.

REDEARH RESORT

The Amazing Johnathan

Venue: Rocks Lounge

Date: October 6, 2017 & 8:30 p.m.

Ticket Prices: $45 plus tax and applicable fees for general admission

Artist Info: The Amazing Johnathan is an eccentric entertainer whose bizarre humor and unscripted antics have earned him worldwide recognition as the most original and successful comic magician in history. His career has spanned 35 years, entertaining two presidents and for 13 years he was one of the biggest draws on The Strip. And for 13 years he was one of the biggest draws on the Las Vegas Strip.

Closed from the 2015 Oscar Telecast to the Susan G. Komen Foundation as part of Project Pink. Artist Info: Six-piece band Delta Rae hails from Durham, NC. "Liz Hopkins and Brittany Holljes are sisters from the robust group with soulful harmonies rounded out by Helljoy's brothers Eli (vocals, piano) and Luke (vocals, guitar) as well as Mike McKeran's drums and Great Emerson (bass)."

Eventino summons the Greek gods to earth. Bushido over 100 shows each year and a reprieve on the fes- tival circuit since forming in 2009, Delta Rae’s larger-than-life perform- ers have earned coveted spots at Bonnaroo, Tomorrow Music Festival, Austin City Limits, Hangout Fest, and Voodoo Fest. They have received national attention with features in NPR, Washington Post and New York Times in addition to multiple late night performances and inclu- sions in Forbes’ 30 Under 30 list. Now signed to Big Machine Label Group’s imprint The Valory Music Co., Delta Rae will bring their intoxicating sound to country radio with their new single, “A Long And Happy Life.” The band will also hit the road this fall for a 30-date headline tour.

This is an all-ages show; those under 21 must be accompanied by an adult.

Delta Rae

Venue: Rocks Lounge

Genre: Country

Date: Monday, October 16, 2017 & 8:30 p.m.

Ticket Prices: $55 plus tax and applicable fees for general admission

Ticket Revenue will go directly to the Susan G. Komen Foundation as part of Project Pink.

Artist Info: Six-piece band Delta Rae hails from Durham, NC. "Liz Hopkins and Brittany Holljes are sisters from the robust group with soulful harmonies rounded out by Helljoy's brothers Eli (vocals, piano) and Luke (vocals, guitar) as well as Mike McKeran's drums and Great Emerson (bass)."

Eventino summons the Greek gods to earth. Bushido over 100 shows each year and a reprieve on the fes- tival circuit since forming in 2009, Delta Rae’s larger-than-life perform- ers have earned coveted spots at Bonnaroo, Tomorrow Music Festival, Austin City Limits, Hangout Fest, and Voodoo Fest. They have received national attention with features in NPR, Washington Post and New York Times in addition to multiple late night performances and inclu- sions in Forbes’ 30 Under 30 list. Now signed to Big Machine Label Group’s imprint The Valory Music Co., Delta Rae will bring their intoxicating sound to country radio with their new single, “A Long And Happy Life.” The band will also hit the road this fall for a 30-date headline tour.

This is an all-ages show; those under 21 must be accompanied by an adult.

Delta Rae

Venue: Rocks Lounge

Genre: Country

Date: Monday, October 16, 2017 & 8:30 p.m.

Ticket Prices: $55 plus tax and applicable fees for general admission

Artist Info: Six-piece band Delta Rae hails from Durham, NC. "Liz Hopkins and Brittany Holljes are sisters from the robust group with soulful harmonies rounded out by Helljoy's brothers Eli (vocals, piano) and Luke (vocals, guitar) as well as Mike McKeran's drums and Great Emerson (bass)."
FALLFESTIVAL

BACK BAR USA TO AWARD SCHOLARSHIPS THROUGHOUT THE YEAR

Marketing, consulting and design firm, BACK BAR USA, will award scholarships to University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV) students throughout the 2017-2018 academic year.

"UNLV continues to provide an exceptional education in the hospitality industry, as well as unparalleled local resources for students," said BACK BAR alumna, Tim Haughinberry.

BEER GREATS

The second annual Festival takes place Saturday, Oct. 7 from 3 to 7 p.m. at the non-profit’s 303 West Oakey Campus, with ample free parking available in the adjacent CNL lot.

OPPORTUNITY VILLAGE KICKS OFF FESTIVE FALL EVENT SEASON SATURDAY, OCT. 7 WITH 2ND ANNUAL KICK-OFF OVERVIEW

OhlottWerfe to Feature 25+ Brews to Try, Traditional German Fare, Music and Fun. All Benefiting Southern Nevadans with Intellectual Disabilities

BACK BAR USA FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES HONORARY HOSTS AND HEADLINER EVERCLEAR FOR M.E.N.U.S. EVENT OCT. 13

JIM BEHIKI COMING TO LAUGH FACTORY

Jim Belushi is a performer, not just an actor, comedian — but a performer. Now just at all those qualities together and you have a hoot of a show. Belushi will be appearing at the Laugh Factory in the new Tropicana Las Vegas, beginning Friday, Oct. 6 through Sunday with tickets ranging from $44.95 to $89.95 for Fri. and Sun., or $54.95 to $94.95 at Sat.

The Beatles, to name just a few.

By Elvis, Frank Sinatra and The Beatles, to name just a few.

FALLFESTIVAL

JIM BEHIKI COMING TO LAUGH FACTORY

Jim Belushi is a performer, not just an actor, comedian — but a performer. Now just at all those qualities together and you have a hoot of a show. Belushi will be appearing at the Laugh Factory in the new Tropicana Las Vegas, beginning Friday, Oct. 6 through Sunday with tickets ranging from $44.95 to $89.95 for Fri. and Sun., or $54.95 to $94.95 at Sat.

The Beatles, to name just a few.

By Elvis, Frank Sinatra and The Beatles, to name just a few.

FALLFESTIVAL

JIM BEHIKI COMING TO LAUGH FACTORY

Jim Belushi is a performer, not just an actor, comedian — but a performer. Now just at all those qualities together and you have a hoot of a show. Belushi will be appearing at the Laugh Factory in the new Tropicana Las Vegas, beginning Friday, Oct. 6 through Sunday with tickets ranging from $44.95 to $89.95 for Fri. and Sun., or $54.95 to $94.95 at Sat.

The Beatles, to name just a few.

By Elvis, Frank Sinatra and The Beatles, to name just a few.

FALLFESTIVAL

JIM BEHIKI COMING TO LAUGH FACTORY

Jim Belushi is a performer, not just an actor, comedian — but a performer. Now just at all those qualities together and you have a hoot of a show. Belushi will be appearing at the Laugh Factory in the new Tropicana Las Vegas, beginning Friday, Oct. 6 through Sunday with tickets ranging from $44.95 to $89.95 for Fri. and Sun., or $54.95 to $94.95 at Sat.

The Beatles, to name just a few.

By Elvis, Frank Sinatra and The Beatles, to name just a few.
Enjoy Authentic Bavarian cuisine in Las Vegas

By Sandy Zimmerman
Las Vegas Tribune
Photos by Hofbrauhaus

The Hofbrauhaus prides itself on their authentic Bavarian menu, just as you would eat in Munich, Germany. And what a great menu. You’ll find all your German favorites and if you are not familiar with German cuisine the friendly wait staff will explain any of the recipes.

The famous crisp, golden-brown Potato Pancakes, Dinner only, (Kartoffelpuffer) is served with smoked salmon.

Try one of the Hofbrauhaus’ German snacks to begin your meal. The Bavarian Sausage Salad (Wurstsalat) goes further than just a salad with its tasty sausage, sliced Swiss cheese, onions and rye bread. If you’re not hungry this could be a light meal.

The Brie Cheese Specialty (Obatzda) offers the creamy texture of cream cheese and the Brie, whether it is mild, flavorful or nutty, and crunchy onions topped with a freshly baked pretzel.

Cold-Cut Platter (Brotzeitteller) includes Pork roast, Black Forest smoked ham, sliced cold cuts, cheese, pickled gherkin, rye bread & butter, served with onions and mustard. This could also be an appetizer platter to share for a couple, family or friends.

The Hofbrauhaus makes their own Giant Pretzel (Riesenbrotzeit) served hot at your table another dish for sharing especially with Obatzda cheese, sauerkraut and onion mustard. You can dip the pretzel into each of the Obatzda cheese and sauces, to have creamy, sweet or tangy tastes. I just like to eat pretzels by themselves!

The giant Pork Sausage Sandwich (Riesenbratwurst) is served on French bread with sauerkraut and onion mustard.

Their giant pork and beef Bavarian-Style Hamburger (Riesenfleischpflanzerl) brings the tastes of pork and beef into a very different hamburger!

The giant Breaded fried golden brown Chicken breast Sandwich (Schnitzellesammel) is one of the choices with chicken.

I just attended the Hofbrauhaus Oktoberfest beer tapping event last week, a celebration dating back to 1810, and was impressed with the jovial atmosphere. There’s live entertainment, bar games, contests, prizes and the celebrity beer tapping every weekend, Friday and Saturdays until October 31.

The live band of three musicians, one musician plays the accordion while the other an ancient wooden Alpenhorn used by people living in the Bavarian Alps to communicate with each other in the 16th century.

Talk Show Host/Columnist Award-Winning Sandy Zimmerman is standing in front of the beer keg that the cast of “Tanked” just tapped during their Oktoberfest ceremony.

Enjoy Authentic Bavarian cuisine in Las Vegas
“Describe the Night” in Houston while Hurricane Harvey raged

A first hand account of directing under pressure

By Giovanna Sardelli

On Tuesday, [August 29, 2017], I began packing my bags, which was unexpected since I had arrived in Houston, TX only a week earlier to begin rehearsals on the World Premiere of Rajiv Joseph’s “Describe The Night.” Hurricane Harvey had been raging since Sunday and on Tuesday we’d taken advantage of a brief break in the near constant rain to walk down to the Alley Theatre. What greeted us was a heartbreakingly vivid sight of waist high floodwater and an alarm sounding from a door that had been breached and from which water was pouring into the theater. We were completely unprepared for what greeted us because only a block away there had been no visible flooding. It had been a whirlwind of a week, as it always is when you launch a new play in a new city. We were already acutely aware of the brief rehearsal period we had for this epic when the weather reports started rolling in and there was talk of canceling rehearsal for a day or two. On Friday, when the magnitude of Harvey was clear, cancellation was confirmed for Sunday and Saturday. Rehearsal was canceled until Tuesday. On Tuesday, rehearsal was canceled indefinitely.

There nothing like being stuck in a hotel during a hurricane for cast building. I mean, we’re a professional theater and stick to theater games and role exercises, but if it is unavoidable, then you’re really going to see the kind of people with whom you are working. It turned out we were people who are generous and thoughtful as they are talented. Over the weekend, everyone had volunteered to keep our Red Cross shelter near the hotel.

Tuesday, the 29th, was the day Harvey arrived in Houston, just a week after we arrived earlier to begin rehearsals on the World Premiere of “Describe the Night” by Rajiv Joseph. Photo: by Giovanna Sardelli

How do I most empower the audience and supporters of the Alley Theater.

I am grateful that we could provide audiences with a measure of distraction and that I left Houston with more skills than when I arrived. I've directed under pressure — and with such a desire to make sure we delivered a production that was worthy of all this extra time, energy, and the investment in our show. We couldn’t get our entire cast back together until the Saturday of this week because one person had wreaked all hell with her one-month-old son, another was without power, and it took another a day to figure out a route that would avoid all flooded roadways. We moved our rehearsals to the 55th floor of an empty office building like a critter care tube with sticky tubes sticking out of every orifice — pumping out water and gunk. Standing in front of every orifice — pumping out water and gunk. Standing in front of every orifice — pumping out water and gunk. Standing in front of every orifice — pumping out water and gunk.

The circumstances from Harvey forced us to ask what was absolutely essential to the story telling. What was the absolute best way to maximize the time we had? How do I most empower the audience and supporters of the Alley Theater.

As many of the costume pieces were locked in a building to which we no longer had access, Amy Clark had to get creative since the color palette had to be altered completely. Something beautiful was born from all that chaos. We have a production about which we are all proud and that we are extraordinary, regardless of the circumstances under which it was created.
Red Cross urges donors of all blood types to help maintain a diverse supply

The American Red Cross urges eligible donors of all races and ethnicities to give blood to help ensure a diverse blood supply for patients in need.

Volunteers play an important role in meeting the medical needs of an increasingly diverse patient population. Patients who need repeated transfusions, like 11-year-old Tyra McCollum who has sickle cell disease, must be closely matched. Very closely. Patients are less likely to have complications from blood donated by someone with a similar ethnicity.

Donors of all racial and ethnic backgrounds, as well as all blood types, are needed to help patients fight sickle cell disease, alpha thalassemia and other illnesses. Make an appointment to give blood by downloading the free Red Cross Blood Donor App, visiting redcrossblood.org or calling 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2787) to make an appointment or for more information.

All blood types are needed to ensure a reliable supply for patients. A blood donor card or driver’s license or other forms of identification are required at check-in. Individuals who are 17 years of age or more (16 with parental consent when allowed by state law), weigh at least 110 pounds and are in generally good health may be eligible to donate. High school students and other donors 16 years of age and younger also have to meet certain height and weight requirements.

Blood and plasmoid donors can save time at their next donation by using RapidPass to complete their pre-donation health questions online, at their own convenience, before they arrive to donate. They will get started and learn more, visit redcrossblood.org/RapidPass and follow the instructions on the site.

Volunteer needed

Another way to support the lifesaving mission of the American Red Cross is to become a volunteer transportation specialist and deliver blood and platelets to local area hospitals. Volunteer transportation specialists play a very important role in ensuring an adequate blood supply for patients in need by transporting blood and blood products. For more information, and to sign up for a volunteer transportation specialist position, visit redcrossblood.org.

City of Las Vegas celebrates Oktoberfest Saturday, Oct. 7

Oktoberfest is returning to downtown Las Vegas Saturday, Oct. 7 for the fifth annual celebration featuring German music, dancing, traditional foods, beer and children’s activities. The event is free and open to the public at Parc Omega Plaza at the Historic Fifth Street School, located at 401 S. Fourth St. Bring the family to enjoy entertainment by the Denebtops, the Alphorn Trio featuring copper pipe horns played by Brian Braulick, and accordion virtuoso Hubert Gall, as well as dancing by the Las Vegas Bavarians.

Retirements will be available for pickup. For German-themed items like stollen (fruit bread), schnitzel, sauerkraut, bratwurst, sausages, potato salad, pretzels and a variety of other foods.

Free parking will be available at the city parking garage directly across the street from the festival. Oktoberfest is presented by the City of Las Vegas in partnership with the German-American Social Club of Nevada. For more information, visit www.artselasvegas.org or permanently/communication/arts.

Opportunity Village kicks off festive fall event Saturday, Oct. 7 with 2nd annual Oktoberfest Opportunity Village commences its growing fall events lineup with Oktoberfest at the Magic Pin, promoting the 2nd annual festival of beer, traditional German food, DJ music, exciting contests and other fun festivities within the long-standing holiday attraction. The second annual festival takes place Saturday, October 7 from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the not-for-profit’s 6300 West Oakey Campus, with ample free parking available in the adjacent CSN lot.

‘We had so much fun last year with Oktoberfest in 2016 that we had to bring it back, and it’s sure to be another highlight of the season,’ said Opportunity Village President and CEO Bob Brown. ‘At our wonderful events like Oktoberfest, Half-Wine and the Magic Pin, we have a whole lot of fun, build camaraderie in our community, and most importantly, help create better, brighter futures for Southern Nevadans with disabilities.’

Oktoberfest is sponsored by the local Larry, Frank, Bebo stories, Dorothy and her dog Toto are caught in a tornado’s path and end up in the land of Oz. Here they meet some memorable characters and follow the yellow brick road to meet the wonderful Wizard of Oz. The Yellow Brick Road will be illuminated for one hour and there will be seven performances Dec. 1-10 at the Charleston Heights Arts Center. Call 722-229-229-229 for more information.

Rainbow Company Youth Theatre Auditions

The city of Las Vegas invites aspiring actors and actresses ages 8 to 18 to audition for roles in the Rainbow Company Youth Theatre musical production of “The Wizard of Oz.” Saturday, Oct. 7 Auditions will begin promptly at 1 p.m. at Casper Center for the Arts, located at 800 E. Mission St. There is no cost to audition.

A prepared song is recommended, along with a dance combination. The acting portion of the audition is improvisation. Participants will be divided into groups and all will sing, dance and act.

The singing musical based on the popular L. Frank Baum stories, Dorothy and her dog Toto are caught in a tornado’s path and end up in the land of Oz. Here they meet some memorable characters and follow the yellow brick road to meet the wonderful Wizard of Oz. The Yellow Brick Road will be illuminated for one hour and there will be seven performances Dec. 1-10 at the Charleston Heights Arts Center. Call 722-229-229-229 for more information.

Rainbow Company Youth Theatre Auditions

The city of Las Vegas invites aspiring actors and actresses ages 8 to 18 to audition for roles in the Rainbow Company Youth Theatre musical production of “The Wizard of Oz.” Saturday, Oct. 7 Auditions will begin promptly at 1 p.m. at Casper Center for the Arts, located at 800 E. Mission St. There is no cost to audition.

A prepared song is recommended, along with a dance combination. The acting portion of the audition is improvisation. Participants will be divided into groups and all will sing, dance and act.

The singing musical based on the popular L. Frank Baum stories, Dorothy and her dog Toto are caught in a tornado’s path and end up in the land of Oz. Here they meet some memorable characters and follow the yellow brick road to meet the wonderful Wizard of Oz. The Yellow Brick Road will be illuminated for one hour and there will be seven performances Dec. 1-10 at the Charleston Heights Arts Center. Call 722-229-229-229 for more information.

Rainbow Company Youth Theatre Auditions

The city of Las Vegas invites aspiring actors and actresses ages 8 to 18 to audition for roles in the Rainbow Company Youth Theatre musical production of “The Wizard of Oz.” Saturday, Oct. 7 Auditions will begin promptly at 1 p.m. at Casper Center for the Arts, located at 800 E. Mission St. There is no cost to audition.

A prepared song is recommended, along with a dance combination. The acting portion of the audition is improvisation. Participants will be divided into groups and all will sing, dance and act.

The singing musical based on the popular L. Frank Baum stories, Dorothy and her dog Toto are caught in a tornado’s path and end up in the land of Oz. Here they meet some memorable characters and follow the yellow brick road to meet the wonderful Wizard of Oz. The Yellow Brick Road will be illuminated for one hour and there will be seven performances Dec. 1-10 at the Charleston Heights Arts Center. Call 722-229-229-229 for more information.

Rainbow Company Youth Theatre Auditions

The city of Las Vegas invites aspiring actors and actresses ages 8 to 18 to audition for roles in the Rainbow Company Youth Theatre musical production of “The Wizard of Oz.” Saturday, Oct. 7 Auditions will begin promptly at 1 p.m. at Casper Center for the Arts, located at 800 E. Mission St. There is no cost to audition.

A prepared song is recommended, along with a dance combination. The acting portion of the audition is improvisation. Participants will be divided into groups and all will sing, dance and act.

The singing musical based on the popular L. Frank Baum stories, Dorothy and her dog Toto are caught in a tornado’s path and end up in the land of Oz. Here they meet some memorable characters and follow the yellow brick road to meet the wonderful Wizard of Oz. The Yellow Brick Road will be illuminated for one hour and there will be seven performances Dec. 1-10 at the Charleston Heights Arts Center. Call 722-229-229-229 for more information.

Rainbow Company Youth Theatre Auditions

The city of Las Vegas invites aspiring actors and actresses ages 8 to 18 to audition for roles in the Rainbow Company Youth Theatre musical production of “The Wizard of Oz.” Saturday, Oct. 7 Auditions will begin promptly at 1 p.m. at Casper Center for the Arts, located at 800 E. Mission St. There is no cost to audition.

A prepared song is recommended, along with a dance combination. The acting portion of the audition is improvisation. Participants will be divided into groups and all will sing, dance and act.

The singing musical based on the popular L. Frank Baum stories, Dorothy and her dog Toto are caught in a tornado’s path and end up in the land of Oz. Here they meet some memorable characters and follow the yellow brick road to meet the wonderful Wizard of Oz. The Yellow Brick Road will be illuminated for one hour and there will be seven performances Dec. 1-10 at the Charleston Heights Arts Center. Call 722-229-229-229 for more information.

Nothing Like High School Football

By Michael A. Aun

The world’s smallest hall of fame, I enjoy the privilege of chancing down incomplete passes and catching points after attempts, in the end zone after St. Cloud High has scored. Yes, I call it “caskey” issue. The last is I have never caught a PA or wayward kick attempt in the one end zone. Sadly, the closest I have ever come is showed up on statewide television. I completed myself and falling far enough apart to catch a clock down the St. Cloud-Lake Nona game three years ago.

The announcers spent three minutes discussing multiple replay on my humiliating fall, throwing in each wire cracker as “Take the glorious back” and “I demanded a referral if I were you!” Sadly, the pleas went on to protect my hands as I had carpet burn injuries on each only week’s earlier. (Loser leap in play here.)

Even my wife couldn’t miss it. I took Christmas about 15 seconds to phone me on my cell calling me “Get off the field…” you’re embarrassing your whole family!”

Embroiled aside, there is no other place I’d rather be than down by the sideline. Where the ball goes, I go. Where the ball goes, I go. Where the ball goes, I go. Where the ball goes, I go.

There are three points of interest and having me on occasion is the McKeon. The McKeon’s are long time Polk County powerhouses like Polk County powerhouses like past National Champion Lakeland. When St. Cloud plays on the road at Polk County powerhouses like the official always pays in ball boys on the home team sidelines so that the chain crews can move freely up and down the visitors side lines, thus minimizing the traffic on each side. The bad news is I never get to talk with our Coaches during those games, but the good news is that I get to hear what the opposition coaches are saying to their players.

It happens that the Lake Wales’ team doctor is an old friend. T.J. McFerran. The Michaels are long time clients of mine in practice and have him on occasion to speak in their community to youth groups as the Boy Scouts.

Ball boys are supposed to shadow the sideline DC at line of scrimmage. I generally believe in having your priorities in order. In order to effectively know where you are and where you are going, it helps to put your past in perspective. What knowledge and skills have you picked up along the way of work? What do you need to do to make things better tomorrow? Only being present in the moment allows you the opportunity to reflect in such a way to appreciate the moment and put your past in perspective.

You can put your priorities in order. It’s when you are present in the moment that you can evaluate your priorities and put them in order. No leader intentionally sets out to mess up the performance of your players. Being present in the moment is as much of a priority for you as a leader anything else you do. If your priorities are out of balance then the decisions you make will have consequences you hadn’t planned for. Only being present in the moment can you see what corrections you need to make with your priorities. It’s when you are present you can make adjustments.

You can reconnect with your team. A leader not present in the moment is not the leader his or her people need. The unintended consequences can be irreparable if not careful. The graph below highlights the communication issues employees have with their leaders. Take a look at how many complaints there are on the list that could be avoided if only the leader were present in the moment among his or her people.

Being present in the moment puts you where your people need you. Being in the moment is all about leadership at the moment. You can lead more effectively. Ultimately, being present in the moment is about more effective leadership. It’s about giving of yourself without all the distractions that come with priorities that are out of order and being disconnected from your people.

Being present in the moment can be a challenge. Our minds are racing and thinking of a dozen other things that need our time and attention. It’s got to be all you have this moment. And in this moment, you can do something that will impact your leadership in a positive way. Be present.

Doug Dickerson is a syndicated columnist. He writes a weekly column for this newspaper. To contact Doug Dickerson, email him at dickydow7@gmail.com.

Get Your Book Published With page publishing

The most trusted all-in-one book publisher
- Titles published in print & digital formats
- Cover design & interior illustrations
- International distribution
- Customized publicity campaigns
- Books sold at major retailers

Call today for your Free Author Submission Kit!

Call 1-800-973-2606
What is a Social Security Number and why do we really have one?

Social Security Awareness

Craig Johnson

Much has been made recently about the importance of protecting your personal information, especially in the aftermath of the Equifax data breach. Among the most private data is your Social Security number, which is unique to each American.

The unique nine-digit Social Security number (SSN) has become so integral to guarantee government benefits and universally identify us all individually. But where did the number come from? How did it originate?

In the midst of the Great Depression, the U.S. government created Social Security to provide a system that American families could rely on, even if their employers didn’t. Initially, the idea was to provide the same benefits to all workers, on the premise that the social state of the workforce would buoy all. The idea took the form of the federal state of the U.S. worker, President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Roosevelt started to turn the tide on the destitute state of the American family even as unemployed people looked for work. The area number represented the region in which an individual was born. The group number was a two-digit “group number,” which was still a unique identifier by their creditors, the courts, and the government. The area number represented the region in which a person lived, which was used in the early 1940s. The serial number is made up of the last four digits of the SSN. The serial number represents a unique identification purpose on mostly all official documents, including tax returns to driver’s licenses, bank accounts, and more. The Social Security number became so important to Americans. First of all, employers were required to take the last four digits of the Social Security number, it was not assigned.

If you’re interested in knowing more about the importance of protecting your personal information, you can contact your local Better Business Bureau or call us at 844-409-8740. We’re here to help you make informed decisions about protecting your personal information.

Here are two useful tips:

1. Credit freezes are one of the most effective ways for consumers to protect themselves against identity theft — and this goes for anyone at any time. According to an online study, credit-freeze services can help you prevent identity theft.
2. Credit scores are one of the most important factors for consumers to protect themselves against identity theft. According to a recent study, credit scores are among the most important factors for consumers to protect themselves against identity theft.

In the midst of the Great Depression, the U.S. government created Social Security to provide a system that American families could rely on, even if their employers didn’t. Initially, the idea was to provide the same benefits to all workers, on the premise that the social state of the workforce would buoy all. The idea took the form of the federal state of the U.S. worker, President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Roosevelt started to turn the tide on the destitute state of the American family even as unemployed people looked for work. The area number represented the region in which an individual was born. The group number was a two-digit “group number,” which was still a unique identifier by their creditors, the courts, and the government. The area number represented the region in which a person lived, which was used in the early 1940s. The serial number is made up of the last four digits of the SSN. The serial number represents a unique identification purpose on mostly all official documents, including tax returns to driver’s licenses, bank accounts, and more. The Social Security number became so important to Americans. First of all, employers were required to take the last four digits of the Social Security number, it was not assigned.

If you’re interested in knowing more about the importance of protecting your personal information, you can contact your local Better Business Bureau or call us at 844-409-8740. We’re here to help you make informed decisions about protecting your personal information.

Here are two useful tips:

1. Credit freezes are one of the most effective ways for consumers to protect themselves against identity theft — and this goes for anyone at any time. According to an online study, credit-freeze services can help you prevent identity theft.
2. Credit scores are one of the most important factors for consumers to protect themselves against identity theft. According to a recent study, credit scores are among the most important factors for consumers to protect themselves against identity theft.

In the midst of the Great Depression, the U.S. government created Social Security to provide a system that American families could rely on, even if their employers didn’t. Initially, the idea was to provide the same benefits to all workers, on the premise that the social state of the workforce would buoy all. The idea took the form of the federal state of the U.S. worker, President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Roosevelt started to turn the tide on the destitute state of the American family even as unemployed people looked for work. The area number represented the region in which an individual was born. The group number was a two-digit “group number,” which was still a unique identifier by their creditors, the courts, and the government. The area number represented the region in which a person lived, which was used in the early 1940s. The serial number is made up of the last four digits of the SSN. The serial number represents a unique identification purpose on mostly all official documents, including tax returns to driver’s licenses, bank accounts, and more. The Social Security number became so important to Americans. First of all, employers were required to take the last four digits of the Social Security number, it was not assigned.

If you’re interested in knowing more about the importance of protecting your personal information, you can contact your local Better Business Bureau or call us at 844-409-8740. We’re here to help you make informed decisions about protecting your personal information.

Here are two useful tips:

1. Credit freezes are one of the most effective ways for consumers to protect themselves against identity theft — and this goes for anyone at any time. According to an online study, credit-freeze services can help you prevent identity theft.
2. Credit scores are one of the most important factors for consumers to protect themselves against identity theft. According to a recent study, credit scores are among the most important factors for consumers to protect themselves against identity theft.

In the midst of the Great Depression, the U.S. government created Social Security to provide a system that American families could rely on, even if their employers didn’t. Initially, the idea was to provide the same benefits to all workers, on the premise that the social state of the workforce would buoy all. The idea took the form of the federal state of the U.S. worker, President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Roosevelt started to turn the tide on the destitute state of the American family even as unemployed people looked for work. The area number represented the region in which an individual was born. The group number was a two-digit “group number,” which was still a unique identifier by their creditors, the courts, and the government. The area number represented the region in which a person lived, which was used in the early 1940s. The serial number is made up of the last four digits of the SSN. The serial number represents a unique identification purpose on mostly all official documents, including tax returns to driver’s licenses, bank accounts, and more. The Social Security number became so important to Americans. First of all, employers were required to take the last four digits of the Social Security number, it was not assigned.
The Equifax hack that compromised 143 million Social Security numbers didn’t just destroy the country’s trust in credit bureaus; it also most certainly killed the use of SSNs for security and identity authentication.

The nine-digit SSN has been used for this purpose for years. Typically, the last six digits of a SSN are used because the first three digits correspond to where in the U.S. you were born. For a security mechanism, it was an easy default, “but that number is now, thanks to Equifax, pretty much obsolete to things other than [receiving] Social Security [payments],” said Ira Rheingold, executive director of National Association of Consumer Advocates. To consumer advocates like Rheingold, that’s probably not a bad thing, since it probably should never have been used for that purpose. “Anyone who uses that for security is crazy,” he said.

The Social Security Administration told Yahoo Finance that the purpose of the number is to report earnings and track benefits. “It was not intended to serve as a personal identification document,” said Darren Lutz, an agency spokesperson. The Administration does not endorse any other use of SSNs. Social Security numbers are everywhere and extremely unsecured

Thinking about the 143 million SSNs floating around on a hacker’s server reminds us of how easily these numbers can be surfaced. SSNs have been widely accessible for a number of years, mostly because so many companies and organizations request the number, or at least a part of it.

“Think about how many times you’ve had to provide your SSN,” said Alex Hamerstone, governance, risk, and compliance practice lead at TrustedSec. “Every time you go to a new doctor or start a new job, when you apply for a home, car or student loan, when you fill out a job application — the list goes on and on.”

Furthermore, some Departments of Motor Vehicles would use SSNs as driver’s license numbers. Colleges sometimes used SSNs as student IDs, and would even post them publicly. Hamerstone recalls his university doing this.

“We’ve been really bad at securing SSNs for decades, and now that all of this data is being stored online, the problem is becoming significantly worse,” he said. “The bottom line is that this system of authentication-by-SSN model that we’ve relied upon since the 1940s is essentially broken.”

It’s easy to buy Social Security numbers on the dark web

“Many people would be surprised at just how easy it is to purchase SSNs online,” said Hamerstone.

According to Hamerstone, many of these sites actually offer customer service. “With just a little know-how, anyone can go to the dark web and buy SSNs and other personal information just as easily as they would order ice cream from Amazon.com,” he said.

The level of stolen data that can be purchased and put up for sale is massive and can lead to elaborate fraud schemes such as someone claiming a tax withheld for someone they have no relationship to. It’s not just SSNs that are available on the dark net: many sites offer “fullz” packages that bundle complete dossiers of personal information including birth dates, credit card and banking account numbers, and mailing addresses. Sometimes they even package the SSNs of all members of a family, Hamerstone said.

Don’t give out your SSN just because someone asks

According to the Social Security Administration, you are not required to give out your SSN except to employers and financial institutions, which you do for tax reporting purposes.

(See Wolf-Mann, Page 24)
By Barbara Dockett
Social Security Public Affairs
Specialist in Las Vegas

Calculating when you should retire:

Calculating when you should retire requires evaluating all aspects of your retirement income. There are many factors to consider, including your personal retirement goals. With multiple factors affecting your decision, sometimes it’s difficult to see the big retirement picture.

Social Security oversees your income and sometime by offering a web-page of calculators to help you plan your Social Security retirement benefits. You can access our online calculators at www.socialsecurity.gov/planners/benefitscalculator.html.

To get started, you’ll need to visit our calculator page and fine-tune your benefit estimate by using the Retirement Estimator if you have the required 40 work credits. Changes in your personal circumstances may cause changes in the number of years you work before you retire. Suppose you had planned to work an additional ten years before retiring, but now you are considering moving that up to the end of this year. How can you determine what differences in dollars in the monthly benefit will be? You can create one estimate with your projected earnings through this year and another including the next ten years. These are estimates, but they will give you an approximation for each of these possible outcomes.

Visit our calculator page and see how your spouse’s benefit changes if taken early. The Early or Late Retirement Calculator can show the differences in benefits if you file early or wait until later to start benefits. The Retirement Estimator for Spouse Calculator is to find out how your spouse’s benefit changes if taken early. You can access all of these at www.socialsecurity.gov/planners/benefitscalculator.html.

Another great planning tool is the Social Security Statement. Get your Social Security statement today and tomorrow by offering a new system for Social Security at www.socialsecurity.gov/history/index.html.

By Ethan Wolff-Mann
Specialist in Las Vegas

Calculating retirement

A calculated retirement

“The decision is theirs. However, without the purchase or service for which the number was required, it is extremely heavy. No building in the United States has over 1,000 square feet of floor space and was ever converted to microfilm. There were 163 million cards of our nation’s workers before we had computers. How did we make our lives easier. The obvious problem with this, however, is that now another identity system needs to be put in place to replace the SSN. That new system would also need to be secured and will likely face similar challenges.

But new technology like blockchain could provide a solution. Estonia, for instance, has established a digital identity system for its citizens. For now, though, it is important to practice good credit hygiene and utilize AnnualCreditReport.com on a regular basis. Experts caution against giving one credit report every four months to make sure you are getting the best deal.

Ethan Wolff-Mann is a writer specializing in Social Security. You can reach him at emann@oath.com.
What You Need To Know
By Dr. Nina Radcliff

Concussions, Heads-Up
By Dr. Nina Radcliff, MD

Head injuries and concussions continue to gain a forefront among primary health-care providers as there is more attention to the impact the injuries can have on an individual’s brain over time.

The Concussion:
The “bleed” that isn’t visible
Wisdom can cause it to be slammed against bumps and jolts that would otherwise be cushioned to protect against minor injury. Fluid is protected by our skull. Fluid—brain, an injured person may lack the ability to concentrate, and delayed response (i.e., pass out); amnesia surrounding the event (or a blood clot that is life-threat -ening), with symptoms ranging from loss of consciousness; headache that may be related to the severity of the head injury. However, there may also be a risk of increasing concussion or complicated thinking so thinking is required to heal. Experts recommend limiting school work as well as other brain activity (e.g., driving, climbing, horseback riding, and contact sports to mention just a few). Alcohol—Bright lights and loud sounds that can contribute to the brain. Discusses with your healthcare provider where you should travel, activity and medicine, together with the need for social activities—they are an im -portant part of healing and should be reintroduced gradually. Give -aways: 답변 is louder among older adults, young athletes, and as well as those who have had a prior concussion. How is post-concussive syndrome (PCS)?
The majority of people recover from a concussion at the time of the injury. However, for some, they can last for years, days, weeks, and months, and post-concussive symptoms typically within 7 days of the injury. However, there does appear to be some evidence that cumulative injury, regardless of whether impacts cause concussions or not. CTE has been shown to cause a number of nega -tive symptoms including depres -sion, memory loss and dementia, confusion, and behavioral and personality changes. The problems can start years after the blows to the head have stopped.

What is Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy (CTE)?
Brain function can be affected as a result of: damage to brain cells. CTE is a degenerative brain disease that can arise years after the blows to the head and can occur even after sale at no cost. No other company provides such extensive support. MDHearingAid company provides such extensive support. MDHearingAid uses the same kind of medical-grade hearing aid. Nearly Invisible OUT OF THE BOX! BIG SOUND.

ADDED VALUE:
$300 “I was amazed! Sounds I hadn’t heard in years came back to me!”

ACTIVE HARMONY TECHNOLOGY

©2017 MDHearingAid, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

What is a concussion? A type of traumatic brain injury (TBI) that occurs when the brain or the fluid that surrounds the brain are jarred, shaken, or twisted against a hard surface. Brain injuries can cause a range of damage to brain cells (nerve cells) and impact the normal function of the nervous system. In addition to at least one medical examination, a doctor specializing in the brain and nervous system will perform a physical examination with a focused neurological exam. Depending on the findings, he or she may recommend further testing such as an MRI of the brain, or neuro -psychological testing which can pick up subtle signs or symptoms that are not immediately obvious. This sort of testing also establishes a baseline to then determine if there is improvement with treatment and recovery.

By Dr. Nina Radcliff, MD

Brain injuries and concussions continue to gain a forefront among primary health-care providers as there is more attention to the impact the injuries can have on an individual’s brain over time.

The Concussion:
The “bleed” that isn’t visible
Wisdom can cause it to be slammed against bumps and jolts that would otherwise be cushioned to protect against minor injury. Fluid is protected by our skull. Fluid—brain, an injured person may lack the ability to concentrate, and delayed response (i.e., pass out); amnesia surrounding the event (or a blood clot that is life-threat -ening), with symptoms ranging from loss of consciousness; headache that may be related to the severity of the head injury. However, there may also be a risk of increasing concussion or complicated thinking so thinking is required to heal. Experts recommend limiting school work as well as other brain activity (e.g., driving, climbing, horseback riding, and contact sports to mention just a few). Alcohol—Bright lights and loud sounds that can contribute to the brain. Discusses with your healthcare provider where you should travel, activity and medicine, together with the need for social activities—they are an im -portant part of healing and should be reintroduced gradually. Give -aways: 답변 is louder among older adults, young athletes, and as well as those who have had a prior concussion. How is post-concussive syndrome (PCS)?
The majority of people recover from a concussion at the time of the injury. However, for some, they can last for years, days, weeks, and months, and post-concussive symptoms typically within 7 days of the injury. However, there does appear to be some evidence that cumulative injury, regardless of whether impacts cause concussions or not. CTE has been shown to cause a number of nega -tive symptoms including depres -sion, memory loss and dementia, confusion, and behavioral and personality changes. The problems can start years after the blows to the head have stopped.

What is Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy (CTE)?

By Dr. Nina Radcliff, MD

Brain injuries and concussions continue to gain a forefront among primary health-care providers as there is more attention to the impact the injuries can have on an individual’s brain over time.

The Concussion:
The “bleed” that isn’t visible
Wisdom can cause it to be slammed against bumps and jolts that would otherwise be cushioned to protect against minor injury. Fluid is protected by our skull. Fluid—brain, an injured person may lack the ability to concentrate, and delayed response (i.e., pass out); amnesia surrounding the event (or a blood clot that is life-threat -ening), with symptoms ranging from loss of consciousness; headache that may be related to the severity of the head injury. However, there may also be a risk of increasing concussion or complicated thinking so thinking is required to heal. Experts recommend limiting school work as well as other brain activity (e.g., driving, climbing, horseback riding, and contact sports to mention just a few). Alcohol—Bright lights and loud sounds that can contribute to the brain. Discusses with your healthcare provider where you should travel, activity and medicine, together with the need for social activities—they are an im -portant part of healing and should be reintroduced gradually. Give -aways: 답변 is louder among older adults, young athletes, and as well as those who have had a prior concussion. How is post-concussive syndrome (PCS)?
The majority of people recover from a concussion at the time of the injury. However, for some, they can last for years, days, weeks, and months, and post-concussive symptoms typically within 7 days of the injury. However, there does appear to be some evidence that cumulative injury, regardless of whether impacts cause concussions or not. CTE has been shown to cause a number of nega -tive symptoms including depres -sion, memory loss and dementia, confusion, and behavioral and personality changes. The problems can start years after the blows to the head have stopped.

What is Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy (CTE)?

By Dr. Nina Radcliff, MD

Brain injuries and concussions continue to gain a forefront among primary health-care providers as there is more attention to the impact the injuries can have on an individual’s brain over time.

The Concussion:
The “bleed” that isn’t visible
Wisdom can cause it to be slammed against bumps and jolts that would otherwise be cushioned to protect against minor injury. Fluid is protected by our skull. Fluid—brain, an injured person may lack the ability to concentrate, and delayed response (i.e., pass out); amnesia surrounding the event (or a blood clot that is life-threat -ening), with symptoms ranging from loss of consciousness; headache that may be related to the severity of the head injury. However, there may also be a risk of increasing concussion or complicated thinking so thinking is required to heal. Experts recommend limiting school work as well as other brain activity (e.g., driving, climbing, horseback riding, and contact sports to mention just a few). Alcohol—Bright lights and loud sounds that can contribute to the brain. Discusses with your healthcare provider where you should travel, activity and medicine, together with the need for social activities—they are an im -portant part of healing and should be reintroduced gradually. Give -aways: 답변 is louder among older adults, young athletes, and as well as those who have had a prior concussion. How is post-concussive syndrome (PCS)?
The majority of people recover from a concussion at the time of the injury. However, for some, they can last for years, days, weeks, and months, and post-concussive symptoms typically within 7 days of the injury. However, there does appear to be some evidence that cumulative injury, regardless of whether impacts cause concussions or not. CTE has been shown to cause a number of nega -tive symptoms including depres -sion, memory loss and dementia, confusion, and behavioral and personality changes. The problems can start years after the blows to the head have stopped.

What is Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy (CTE)?

By Dr. Nina Radcliff, MD

Brain injuries and concussions continue to gain a forefront among primary health-care providers as there is more attention to the impact the injuries can have on an individual’s brain over time.

The Concussion:
The “bleed” that isn’t visible
Wisdom can cause it to be slammed against bumps and jolts that would otherwise be cushioned to protect against minor injury. Fluid is protected by our skull. Fluid—brain, an injured person may lack the ability to concentrate, and delayed response (i.e., pass out); amnesia surrounding the event (or a blood clot that is life-threat -ening), with symptoms ranging from loss of consciousness; headache that may be related to the severity of the head injury. However, there may also be a risk of increasing concussion or complicated thinking so thinking is required to heal. Experts recommend limiting school work as well as other brain activity (e.g., driving, climbing, horseback riding, and contact sports to mention just a few). Alcohol—Bright lights and loud sounds that can contribute to the brain. Discusses with your healthcare provider where you should travel, activity and medicine, together with the need for social activities—they are an im -portant part of healing and should be reintroduced gradually. Give -aways: 답변 is louder among older adults, young athletes, and as well as those who have had a prior concussion. How is post-concussive syndrome (PCS)?
The majority of people recover from a concussion at the time of the injury. However, for some, they can last for years, days, weeks, and months, and post-concussive symptoms typically within 7 days of the injury. However, there does appear to be some evidence that cumulative injury, regardless of whether impacts cause concussions or not. CTE has been shown to cause a number of nega -tive symptoms including depres -sion, memory loss and dementia, confusion, and behavioral and personality changes. The problems can start years after the blows to the head have stopped.

What is Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy (CTE)?
There is no clear or easy solution to this ongoing problem. But little changes can help. For example, try switching your pet over to a plant-based diet — perhaps after a discussion with your veterinarian. After all, you want to make sure your pet is getting enough protein in its vegetarian food over time. Also, you can still be part of the solution by at least buying organic pet food and compostable cat litter. These few changes might not automatically solve the worldwide problem, but at least you — and Fido and But-
‘Defending the Caveman’ may save you money on therapy

By Sandy Zimmerman
Las Vegas Tribune

Photos by

"Defending the Caveman"

Why do Some Men Act like Cavemen?

Perhaps psychiatrists should study this different way of looking at men's and women's behavior. Can we change the way a man or woman behaves? Perhaps not, but we can understand what happens between them.

Psychiatrists have been studying behavior for many years but Kevin Burke, the star of the one-man show "Defending the Caveman" has the answer! Kevin explained, "It all goes back to the cave times when men were hunters and women were gathers. If you are hunters silence is important otherwise you scare the game away. Men don’t talk a lot.

With gatherers, you are gathering a lot of nuts and berries and have a constant stream of conversation to be sure no one got picked off by a predator and that the children were safe. For women back in cave times, the conversation was life itself.

Today studies show men will speak about 7,000 words and women 20,000 a day. Kevin feels, "When I come home and my wife is mad at me, I’m just out of words!"

"Defending the Caveman", written as a play by Rob Becker, had their world premiere in San Francisco, California running one year, one year in Dallas, one year in Washington, DC, then Broadway in '94, running two and a half years, the longest running one-person show on Broadway. Kevin took over the Broadway role playing the big outlets like the Smith Center finally bringing "Defending" to Las Vegas. "Defending" has been running 10 years in Las Vegas with 4,000 performances, the longest-running Broadway show in Las Vegas history.

Kevin Burke is the ONLY person performing TWO SHOWS at the same time, his own stand-up comedy show and "Defending the Caveman.

Defending the Caveman appears every night at 8:40 p.m., Kevin Burke says, "Defending the Caveman is a great dating show for couples, you will fall in love with each other all over again!" Whether you fall in love again, you will love this show!

The D Las Vegas Hotel offers 4 shows- Defending the Caveman, Marriage Can Be Murder, Adam London’s Laughternoon afternoon show, and the Jokester’s Comedy Club.

For show information and tickets, call 702-388-2111. Bundle 2 shows and save $20 on each VIP ticket.

The D Las Vegas Hotel is next to the Fremont Street Experience and across from the White Castle restaurant, at 301 Fremont Street.

Award-winning syndicated columnist Sandy Zimmerman is a Show and Dining reviewer as well as travel, health, luxury living and more. Sandy is talk show host of Sandy Zimmerman’s Las Vegas TV. For information, questions, or to recommend subjects, please call (702) 331-4610 or email web@sandyzimm2003@yahoo.com.

SUGGESTIONS: Do you have a fave comedian, singer, musician, hypnotist, ventriloquist, specialty act, production show or any other entertainer? Send your fave, the reasons for your choice, your name, email and you may win complimentary tickets to a show or other prize.
To place classified ads in the Las Vegas Tribune please call 702-426-6022 or 702-426-5902

HELP WANTED

Busy legal office looking for a family law attorney. Answer to: Legal@criminaldefenseoflasvegas.com.

INTERNET/TV OFFERS

DISH DEALS!! 100 Channels... 114.95/month $49.99 + tax $99.99 + tax 1-855-977-7038

SPECIAL OFFERS

INSPIRE THE WORLD PUBLISH YOUR BOOK TODAY WITH THE MOST RESPECTED FULL SERVICE PUBLISHING FIRM! Call today for your free publishing kit: 800-303-3839

HEALTH

FDA Registered Hearing Aid! 100% tax free

discontinued

PERSONALS

AMERICA'S HOTTEST GAY CHATLINE
1-800-540-1517

YOU KNOW YOUR FAMILY. WE KNOW SENIOR LIVING. Together, we will find the RIGHT PLACE.

INDEPENDENT LIVING • ASSISTED LIVING • MEMORY CARE

A Place for Mom has helped over a million families find senior living solutions that meet their unique needs. Our Advisors are trusted, local experts who can help you understand your options. Here’s what’s included with our free service:

- A dedicated local Advisor
- Hand-picked list of communities
- Full details and pricing
- Help scheduling tours
- Move in support

There’s no cost to you!
CALL (855) 559-1886

Joan Lunden, journalist, best-selling author, former host of Good Morning America & senior living advocate.

A Place for Mom has helped over a million families find senior living solutions that meet their unique needs. Our Advisors are trusted, local experts who can help you understand your options. Here’s what’s included with our free service:

- A dedicated local Advisor
- Hand-picked list of communities
- Full details and pricing
- Help scheduling tours
- Move in support

There’s no cost to you!
CALL (855) 559-1886

Joan Lunden, journalist, best-selling author, former host of Good Morning America & senior living advocate.